

in there it did ask that the Court grant the relief as prayed.

Q What do you think about this stove and refrigerator; do you think that would be any asset to the property or would it be better off to get it out of there?

A It all depends on the condition .

MISS SHOOK: The stove is fairly new, but there isn't even a freezing unit in the refrigerator. Nobody would--

MR. HORMAN: You could offer it with stove and refrigerator. Sometimes it does help. This way we can add the two, whatever we think it is worth, on to the price of the home.

THE COURT: This is all right, you can file that, Mr. Price.

MR. PRICE: We previously have a bond of $5,000 on the Frank Shook property, but that was based on the premise that very little of his property was in cash. I wouldn't know what the Court now would want to do.

THE COURT: What we will do now - $5,000 - you don't have $5,000 now, do you?

MR. PRICE: No, sir, not in cash.

THE COURT: In this case I think $1,000 is more than enough in the case you have before me now. There is about $1600.00 - I know it isn't going to be there, and no use to get it in the bond now, because the property even though I authorize it to be sold can't be sold till you get a purchaser; so if you are going to try to make it a private sale let's leave it alone. I will authorize you to sell it. The
